

National Pan American Golf Association Women's Hall of Fame

Hall of Fame Guidelines

Purpose

The Women's Hall of Fame recognizes and honors women who have distinguished themselves in the NPAGA. The honorees may themselves be lady golfers or individuals who have made an impact in the support and promotion of Women's Golf through their individual efforts.

Eligibility

- 1. Deserving Lady Golfers or contributors to the National Women's Committee
- 2. PAGA membership and/or participation/attendance at National Tournaments and Conventions for the past 15 years.
- 3. Distinguished service and/or playing ability.

Award

A plaque will be presented to the inductee at the Awards Ceremony of the National Tournament and Convention meeting. Another will be displayed in the PAGA Archives found in San Antonio which currently houses the Men's Hall of Fame inductees. No more than 2 inductees will be recognized annually.

Selection Committee

The Chair of the National Women's Committee in consultation with the officers shall appoint the chair of the selection committee. The selection committee membership shall consist of 3 former or present Women's Committee officers and 2 representatives at large selected by the Women's Committee. The term of office for all members is 3 years and a rotating system will be determined. The Chair of this committee will annually appoint an ex-officio member from the men's delegates to the NPAGA.

Selection Process

- 1. Nominations are recommended and forwarded to the Chair of the Selection Committee by the local PAGA chapters or the local PAGA Ladies Auxiliary Chapter (which ever applies to individual situations).
- 2. In addition to a support letter from the local chapter, the recommendation should include a detailed resume that describes the individual's contributions to women's golf and/or a description of the manner in which they have distinguished themselves.
- 3. Supporting documents to further detail the candidate's contributions are encouraged.
- 4. The Chair of the Selection Committee shall convene the committee and review each application as guided by a standard selection criteria matrix.

Timeline

- 1. The application may be obtained from the Women's Committee or downloaded from the web page of the NPAGA
- 2. The application package should be postmarked no later than December 31 of a given year.
- 3. The Chair of the Women's Hall of Fame Committee will convene the committee and make a selection at the Spring Meeting of the National Women's Committee Officers.
- 4. Recipients will be honored at the summer NPAGA tournament and convention.
